Trystan also known as Trystan of Ellander was born in the Temerian duchy of Ellander born and trained in the halls of Ban Ard. He is known for trying to use Goetia to gain power by summoning a devil in the middle of his study in Ellander and demanded that it give him its power. Unfortunately for him, Trystan had done research in outdated textbooks from before Goetia was illegal across the North. He thought that burning garlic and osha root would weaken the devil and force it to bargain with him.

The demon of course killed the mage and possessed his body without a second thought. He used the mage's corpse to run amuck until enough damage was done to the corpse that the demon could no longer reside in its vessel. Trystan's body was unceremoniously abandoned by the demon, his corpse was not given a proper burial by the peasant mob that set upon it but was salted and burned in fear it would rise again.
